- CONTENTMENT. Father, I know that all my life Is portioned out for me, And the changes that will surely come I do not fear to see: I ask Thee for a patient mind. Intent on pleasing Thee.
- I ask Thee for a thoughtful love, Through constant watching wise. To meet the glad with joyful smile, And wine the weeping eyes, And a heart, at leisure from itself,
- To soothe and sympathize. I would not have the resiless way
- .That hurries to sud tro. Seaking for some great thing to do. Or secret thing to know; I would be treated as a child.
- And guided where I go. Wherever in this world I am, In whatsoo'er estate. I have a fellowship with hearts
- To keep and callivate. And a work of lowly love to do, For the Lord on whom I wait.
- So I ask Thee for the daily strength-To none that ask denied-And a heart to blond with outward life, While keeping at Thy side, Content to fill a little space.
- If Thou be glorified. There are briers besetting every path, Which call for constant care:
- There is a cross in every lot And an carnest need for prayer; But a lowly heart, that leans on Thee, Is happy everywhere.
- In a service which Thy love appoints, There are no bonds for me. For my secret heart-bas-learned the truth-Which makes Thy children free, And a life of self-renuncing love

Is a life of liberty.
